PRICE 5 CENTS.

EDWARD CORRIGAN'S HORSES.

Mr. Corrigan's stable recently brought from England is sure to be a center of great interest this year in the minds of American patrons of racing, because it embraces seventeen English bred horses, a number of which have raced in England with considerable distinction and the majority, if not all, of which he expects to race over the western tracks. He is the first turfman to bring a strong string of developed English racers to this country to pit against our American thoroughbreds and in order that the experiment may have a satisfactory trial it is to be hoped the horses will not be injuriously affected by their voyage and the change of climate. The list of horses brought over by Mr. Corrigan, including a number taken to England by him, is as follows:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Word comes from Nashville, Tenn., that the two-year-old division at the local track is far above the average. Just before the cold spell quarters were reeled off around 24 seconds, and three-eighths in 36 with great regularity. Among the more promising of the two-year-olds may be mentioned Frank Bruhn's bay colt, by Ben d'Or—Venezuela; also, his bay colt, by Ben d'Or—Sierra Madra; W. W. Darden's brown colt, by First Mate—The Cough; also, his chestnut colt, by Faverdale—Varnish, and John J. Greener's brown filly, by Ormus—Alveria M. On her showing this youngster is probably the best at the track. Scott P. Harlan has a brace that for breeding and looks can hardly be surpassed. One is a chestnut filly, by Inspector B.—Pretense, dam of the good race horse The Parader, the other a brown filly, by Himyar—Viscontess. This pair has been entered in all of the two-year-old stakes both at Harlem and Hawthorne. Two-year-olds from the Hendrie barn are bred in the purple. Those in the Moore string have not been given much work as yet, but are forward enough to encourage the belief that they will be factors in the prominent stakes for horses of their age. Those belonging to the Walters division are taking their work well. Mr. Hendrie's Lexington purchases are growing and are well thought of by Walters.

The youngsters in the Hayes barn have not been tried out sufficiently to get a line on them. They are all good lookers, however, and as Hayes is one of the best conditioners in the country his string likely enough will furnish some surprises when they go to the post.

W. H. Jackson, Jr.'s stable, in charge of Henry Gerhardt, has arrived at the track from Belle Meade, and the horses, twenty-two in number, are doing well.

A report has been sent out from Frisco to the effect that jockey Bullman will go to New Orleans to ride Lord Quex in the Crescent City Derby. This, however, is not correct. Albert Simons, the owner of Lord Quex says that he had never as much as given Bullman a thought in connection with his colt. Winkfield has for some time been engaged to ride Lord Quex in the big New Orleans event. Simons also expects to have the Dunne jockey ride his colt in the American Derby in the event that he starts in the west's premier race, provided Mr. Dunne should not have a starter. Lord Quex is going along in good form.

According to reports from Memphis, Tenn., there will be no consolidation of the equine forces of John W. Schorr, William C. Schulte and Senator J. S. O'Brien this year. J. W. Schorr, it is said, will start the season in full charge of his horses and not even his son, J. F. Schorr, will be financially interested in their welfare. William C. Schulte, president of the Louisville Jockey Club, who was reported to have formed the alliance with J. W. Schorr and O'Brien, is credited with saying that a very small partnership existed between them, and, while at Montgomery Park last week, looked at Flora Pomona, which alone represents the possessions of the firm of J. W. Schorr & Co. Each of the thirty-seven remaining horses in the barn is owned outright by J. W. Schorr. February 17 all the horses in charge of J. F. Schorr in California will be sold. The lot embraces Joe Frey, F. W. Brode, Timemaker, and twelve others. J. W. Schorr made an offer of $5,000 to Senator O'Brien for a two-year-old filly by Flying Dutchman—Lady of the Lake, which was declined.

William C. Whitney appears to be having unusually hard luck with his stable of racing thoroughbreds this winter. With Nasturtium, his Derby candidate, ailing in England, comes the unwelcome news that the crack colt, Goldsmith, is suffering from what is said to be lung trouble at Mr. Whitney's Long Island farm. Dr. William Shepard of New York says the colt has a high fever and coughs continually, but that in all probability he will recover. Goldsmith was such a consistent performer last year that it was predicted by many turfmen that he would develop into a great three-year-old. There was a time when Goldsmith was considered a better race horse than Nasturtium and in some quarters it was believed that he would be sent to England instead of the latter. Not long ago King Hanover was stricken with an illness that was epidemic at Mr. Whitney's stables, but he is well now and will be able to fill his engagements. Mr. Whitney has lost two promising two-year-olds through illness this winter, but his other thoroughbreds, notably Yankee and Endurance by Right, have escaped.—New York Sun.

Owners of some of the prominent stables, which will confine their racing almost entirely to the west this season, are snapping up all the good horses that are showing at New Orleans. Several days ago M. Barrett, acting for E. J. Shipsey, transferred Mynheer to F. G. Altman, the consideration being something like $2,500. A horse that shows any kind of form cannot be touched for less than this amount. The fact that H. Robinson refused $4,000 for Death shows what a demand there is for good material. J. McGrath, who is wintering a small, but select stable at the Crescent City, was approached some

Time, 25½, 51½, 1:10.

Winner—Ch. g. by Harry O'Fallon—Ethel VI.
Went to post at 2:11. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Hilary beat the gate. Bullman made the most of this advantage, picked the best going and was very lucky throughout. Screenwell Lake is best on a sloppy track, was given a lucky start and clever ride and just lasted long enough to beat the badly ridden February. The latter was in hand for the first half and was only called on when it was too late and was best. Phil Archibald finished fast. Alzura got off poorly and could never get up. Katherine Ennis tired badly and can do better.

Scratched—30238 Idalette, 106; 30607 Graylette, 104.
Overweights—Hilary, 2 pounds; February, 2; Alzura, 4; William F., 3; Idaho Chief II., 2; Forbes, 4. Hilary, show, 1 to 2. Screenwell Lake, show, 4 to 5. February, show, 8 to 5. Alzura, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. f. by St. Carlo—Countess Langden.
Went to post at 2:43. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Lass of Langden quickly ran into a winning lead from a flatfooted start and was easily best. Budd Wade got off running, did his best and was strongly handled. Breton ran well and finished fast. Annie Max and Yrsula were outrun throughout. Oratossa showed a good burst of early speed. The others are very bad racers.

Scratched—30573 Knockings, 112.
Corrected weights—Breton, 117.
Lass of Langden, show, out. Budd Wade, show, 2 to 1. Breton, show, evens.

Winner—B. g. by Altamax—Duckling.
Went to post at 3:02. At post 8 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Adirondack beat the gate and led throughout under strong urging and won through Bullman's powerful riding. Dotterel was catching him fast at the end of the race and ran a very game race. Nigrette, off badly, ran very wide on the turn, closed a big gap, finished fast and was probably best in the going. Hudson showed early speed, but failed to make good in the stretch. Puss in Boots was at a disadvantage in the going. Dupage, a good looker, was practically left.

Adirondack, show, out. Dotterel, show, 3 to 5. Nigrette, show, 7 to 10.

Time, 24, 49½, 1:16½.

Winner—B. f. by Candlemas—Duchess of Towers.
Went to post at 3:33. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Tower of Candles broke flatfooted, but put up a game effort after being outrun to the stretch and gradually wore John Peters down. The latter was away in his stride and ran under a stiff pull almost throughout and stayed remarkably well in a driving finish. He is a superior colt in sloppy going. Prestano finished fast after being messed about on the stretch turn. Phyllis went well throughout, but was not good enough. Matt Hogan had no chance with his jockey, but made up much ground on his own courage. Ben Ledi quit in the stretch and was outclassed in the going.

Overweights—John Peters, 3 pounds; Prestano, 1; Phyllis, 1.
Tower of Candles, show, out. John Peters, show, 3 to 5. Prestano, show, 1 to 2.

Went to post at 4:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Wolhurst was benefitted by the excessive use of Urchin in the first part of the race and caught him tiring in the stretch and finished strongly. Urchin forced the pace throughout, and while tiring at the end put up a desperately game finish. Formero, carefully handled and saved, was dropped in a lucky third. He is better in sticky going. Joe Ripley, poorly handled and under a stiff pull from the start, was never given his head until it was too late. The others were outrun and were never serious contenders at any stage.

Overweights—Formero, 4 pounds.

Wolhurst, show, 8 to 5. Urchin, show, 3 to 2. Formero, show, 7 to 10. Joe Ripley, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Islington—Joy, by Wildidle.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Nilgar was lucky and skilfully handled. He was nursed to the stretch where he turned very wide but finished strongly and was probably best. Quiz is in rare form. He flashed to the front in the stretch and seemed the winner but tired right at the end. Young Morello displayed plenty of speed and stamina. Hungarian was badly ridden but finished strongly in the worst going. Lode Star closed a big gap from a poor start and is steadily improving. Mission was crossed on the far turn losing several lengths. The Singer, evidently short, showed speed, but quit badly in the stretch. Ned Dennis ran badly.

Scratched—30590 Ural, 101.

Overweights—Hungarian, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Likely—Ado.
Went to post at 2:29. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Julia Junkin showed the most early speed and drew away from her field when rounding the far turn, but was tiring at the end and had to be ridden out. Sam Houston ran a good race, but should have been third. Odom took The Four Hundred back when rounding the turn out of the backstretch. He was next to the inside rail and was interfered with, then finished with a great burst of speed, but could not get through and pulled up again at the end. He was probably much the best and should have won off by himself. Chickadee closed a big gap.

Corrected Weights—Chickadee, 122.

Overweights—The Four Hundred, 4 pounds; Chickadee, 1; Postillion, 1 1/2; You You, 3.

Winner—B. h. by Prince Royal—Little Hopes.
Went to post at 3:07. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Prince Real finished strongly after coming wide at the stretch turn and got up in the last stride. Add showed the most early speed, but hung when it came to a drive. Philma Paxton was hustled along all the way, came through next to the rail at the stretch turn and was in close quarters at the end. Homage and Tros were tiring. The latter quit when it came to a drive. It was a weak ride on Charles C. He was under restraint while going down the backstretch and made up a lot of ground in the last furlong.

Free Coinage ran well but was tiring at the end and just lasted long enough to save second place. John G. Ford and Mr. Phinizy finished strongly. The latter would have been second in two more strides. Tour bolted to the outside fence when rounding the far turn.

Scratched—30083 St. Cuthbert, 108; 29895 Sim W., 98.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Scarlet Lily, finishing strongly, drew away at the end after running Maggie Davis into submission and had plenty in reserve at the finish. Maggie Davis ran a fast six furlongs, but tired near the finish. Andes and Lady Alberta had Death in between them for nearly the entire journey and kept bumping him from one to the other and Thompson struck Slack across the face with his whip a couple of times in the run home.

Winner—Ch. f. by St. Charles—Belladonna (Jessie).
Went to post at 3:04. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Donna Bella was well in motion when the flag fell, showed surprising improvement and won with plenty in reserve. B. O. Reed ran an honest race and stood punishment gamely. Corder II. was the recipient of a poor ride. He ran a winning race, is good at present and is worth remembering. Potasi had the worst of the start and had to run all around his field. Petronius tired badly in the last quarter.

Scratched—30617 Alzora, 105; 30597 Clifton Boy, 94.

Donna Bella, show, 1 to 2. B. O. Reed, show, 1 to 2. Potasi, show, 1 to 2.

30632 SECOND RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $150. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

days ago by Chicago men and asked to put a price on Lamp O'Lee. Ordinarily Lamp O'Lee is a horse which could be purchased in the east for something like $2,500 or $3,000. Around Bennings last fall he could give a horse like Death ten or fifteen pounds. With the inflated values which the demand has created, Lamp O'Lee is a $5,000 horse. The chances are, however, that he, too, will change hands in a few days.

Word comes from Memphis, Tenn., that trainer Charles Hughes, who "prepped" Lieutenant Gibson and other horses for Charles Head Smith, of Chicago, was there last week in company with Henry Zeigler, of Cincinnati, presumably to buy horses, but had left without making a purchase. Sam Hildreth had all his horses unclothed for Charles Hughes and Henry Zeigler. A grander lot of horses, all of which are the picture of health, it would be hard to see from any stable. Hughes asked Hildreth to price McChesney. The reply was $20,000, "and," added his owner, "it is no use your offering me a cent less." McChesney has filled out finely and has grand quarters on him. In height he does not appear to have grown much since a two-year-old, but that may be owing to his general growth. Hildreth says he is 200 pounds heavier than when he bought him.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Henry Ziegler holds a contract on Lee Jackson's services for 1902. S. C. Hildreth wanted to purchase the boy from the Cincinnati man. The price asked was $8,000, which Hildreth considered too steep. It is more than likely, however, that L. Jackson will ride for McChesney's owner during the Memphis meeting.

Judging from Intrusive's last race, he is rounding into the form that made him the best handicap horse at New Orleans last year. He should be a hard horse to beat from now on. A race between Death and him just now at the Crescent City would be an event of some interest, as each has a strong following.

The only strings of horses to reach Montgomery Park, Memphis, Tenn., last week were the Canadian jumpers belonging to W. F. MacLean and horses owned by W. S. Barnes, who last year arrived with Endurance by Right.

Birkenruth seems to have gone back in his riding, says a San Francisco exchange. He has been getting away from the post poorly and has not been finishing as he used to. This is probably the result of his recent illness.

W. O. Scully, who last year trained the horses of John Daly and L. M. Myers, the string including the filly Leonora Loring, which was disqualified for the great Filly Stakes, has opened a public stable at Sheephead Bay.

Charles Thorpe, the well known jockey, will sail for France shortly. Thorpe is under engagement to ride for one of the principal French turfmen, the Viscount d'Harcourt, at a retaining fee said to be $12,000.

As soon as the weather breaks at Memphis, the aged Tillo and five-year-old Wooster Boy will be put over the jumps; these, with Filon d'Or, will make a bid for the Cotton Steeplechase stakes.

Captain A. C. "Buck" Franklin, of Nashville and Gallatin, one of the best known race horse men and trainers in the country, is dying at the Douglas Hospital in Nashville from bladder trouble.

Ralph Bayard, racing secretary of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, having resigned on account of ill health, John Boden, Jr., of New York city, has been appointed in his place.

At New Orleans, yesterday, jockeys Slack and G. Thompson were suspended for the remainder of the meeting, for striking each other with their whips in the course of the fourth race.

T. C. McDowell is waiting for the weather, to break to ship his string from Lexington, Ky. to Memphis, Tenn.

Jockey Spencer is now in New York, preparing for his trip to England, where he will ride the Keene horses.
